Harris County Clerk Chris Hollins Announces Vote by Mail Drop-Off Locations

Voters Can Drop Off Their Vote by Mail Ballots at 11 Locations Across the County on Election Day

(Houston, TX) – On Election Day, July 14, voters who received mail ballots but were unable to mail in their ballots on time can go in-person to 11 locations across the County to drop off their ballot. This is the first time in recent history that there has been more than a single drop-off location in Harris County. The voter must go in-person to one of the 11 locations to verify their identity for their vote to be counted. Locations will be open during polling center hours, from 7:00 AM to 7:00 PM on Election Day, Tuesday July, 14.

“We increased mail ballot drop-off locations for Election Day as another method for voters to cast their ballots safely and expand voter access for the people of Harris County,” said Harris County Clerk Chris Hollins. “Voters who applied to vote by mail but were unable to mail in their ballots on time can now take their completed ballots to any one of the 11 locations and know their vote will be counted. No Harris County resident should have to make a decision between their health and their Constitutional right to vote.”
